Wanalirri School Newsletter Week 7 Term 1 2017

Dear Parents and Families, We welcomed Sionel back to school this week. It's great to see returning students coming straight back to school. It continues the great culture Ngallagunda Community has had over many years of sending every child to school every day. The attendance chart below lets you know who's keeping strong with attendance each week.

100% Attenders Week 6
Quinceton, Ely, Daemon & Keiran

Caritas Working Bee

Wanalirri bakers hard at work with fresh pies made with home-made pastry. They tasted even better due to the professional outfits donated by CARITAS and sent thanks to Cherrille Quilty in the Bishop's Office in Broome.

During Lent, we are asked to fast, pray and give alms to the poor. The past two years, we have raised money by gardening and cleaning at the school and sending our "pay" to CARITAS. We will hold a Working Bee Monday afternoon from 3.00pm. Please come to help the poor.

Bakers Delightful

Mud Glorious Mud

Bulla Man    Crushadder    The Crusher    Dino Dog

Students completed their “bones” work by sketching what their amazing animals might look like. They collected local mud from their secret mud-repository and fashioned likenesses of their designs. (No hands, faces or bodies were left un-muddied by the experience.)

Meditation

Students really enjoy meditation sessions with Michelle, especially when they have the chance to draw about their feelings.

Prayers and Assembly each Friday 9.30am

The most important reason to come to Assembly on Friday is to see the children’s work and help them celebrate their efforts. The students are always excited at Assembly time and love having family members come to listen to them read, see their work, watch them dancing or singing, or to enjoy something good to eat from Friday Cooking. Thanks Daly-Ann for coming last Friday. Welcome everyone!
