Wanalirri School Newsletter Week 10 Term 3 2018

Week 9

100% Attenders

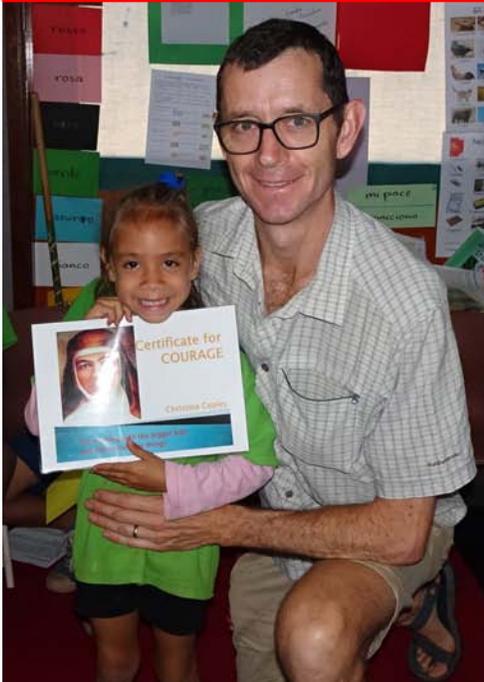

Every student deserves the chance every day for the great education Wanalirri Catholic School can provide.

Sherahni, Quinceton, Travis, Christina, Helen, Daemon, Lazeequah & Keiran.

Dear Parents, Families and Friends, we thought we'd squeeze in one more newsletter before the end of term. Thanks to Joedi, Natasha and Marcia for attending our special Week 9 Water Sports Assembly.

WARNING! Be on the look-out for any fake news reports about our school!

BELOW: Quinceton received an award for helping other students learn about time. BELOW RIGHT: Helen read a whole book at assembly. She is practising sounding out words carefully.

LEFT : Christina received the Mary MacKillop Award for Courage. She has been joining in with the bigger students in nearly all the activities this week.

Wanalirri Fake News Reports What happened at our Water-Fun Assembly! Student On The Run

LEFT: Wanalirri student Daemon Savoia is on the run, pursued by a gun-wielding girl. He was last seen zig-zagging away in a Southerly direction, carrying a cup of an unidentified liquid.

Innocent Child Caught in the Middle!

RIGHT: When parents started shooting at a recent school event, an innocent student was caught in the crossfire. Investigations into the incident are continuing.

School Principal Pours Cold Water on Community Help

ABOVE: When community member Marcia O. came to help out at Wanalirri Catholic School, the Principal bent over backwards to pour cold water on her efforts. Shame, shame, shame!

Early Start To The Wet

LEFT: It's only September but many people got unexpectedly soaked at the recent Wanalirri Week 9 Assembly. The Weather Bureau refused to comment on the incident.

Students Wasting Water!

RIGHT: Students at Wanalirri Catholic School have been seen running around wasting water. And what's worse, they seem to be very happy about doing it! Teachers have a lot of explaining to do.

Concern at Lack of Progress at School

LEFT: "Things just seem to be going around and around in circles at Wanalirri School," one student was heard to complain.
