Wanalirri School Newsletter Week 5 Term 1 2018

Dear Parents and Families, on the recent State Government Census, we were able to claim funding for two eligible students. This will certainly impact our budget in the short term. We look forward to more families making the most of having a quality Catholic School in their own community.

Week 3,

100% Attenders

Every student deserves the chance every day for the great education Wanalirri Catholic School can provide.

Ely, Daemon & Keiran

Ash

Wednesday

Prayer

Marcia and Danny joined students and staff for Ash Wednesday. Daemon read the Gospel and Ely and Keiran read the Psalm. Marcia distributed the ashes with the words, "Turn away from sin and be like Jesus".

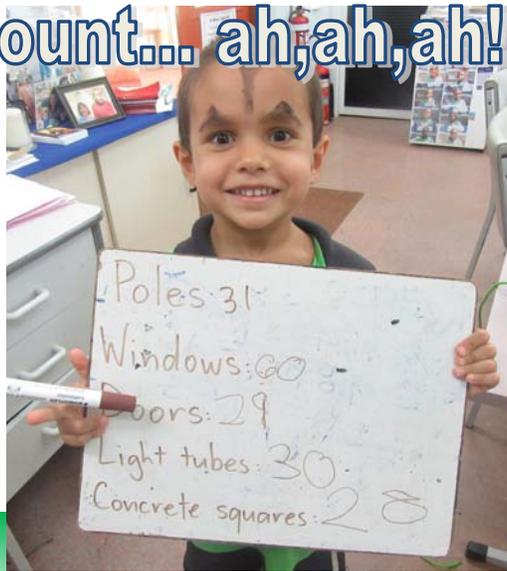

Orange Cakes at Ten Paces

Each Friday we cook as an important part of the Design and Technology curriculum. Lately we have been comparing recipes and using criteria to judge the results of our cooking. On Shrove Tuesday we used three different pancake recipes and had Miss Michelle do a "blind test" to judge our pancakes. Last Friday week, we searched the internet for Orange Cake recipes. We made two different kinds, and once again Miss Michelle was asked to judge. She chose Ely and Daemon's cake for its orange flavour, moistness and the way it held together. Keiran is seeking a re-match!

He loves to count... ah,ah,ah!

Keiran's been counting everything he can get his hands on. He used MAB blocks to show what the numbers looked like. He announced that it looks just like the graph we use to record temperatures and rainfall for SciTech's Weatherwall.

CROSTOLI KINGS!

Combining Italian and Cooking, last Friday we made "crostoli"- an Italian pastry. The recipe is similar to making pasta but some sugar is added. We cut the pastry into small strips and fried it in oil. After dusting the crostoli in icing sugar, we enjoyed them the traditional way- with a cup of coffee!

Per fare i crostoli, si usa farina, uova, zucchero e un po' di latte. Tira bene la pasta e tagliarla a pezzetti. Friggere i pezzi in olio bollente. Mangia i crostoli con un buon caffè'.

Ely (pictured LEFT measuring perimeter) has just been offered Abstudy assistance to study at St John's Darwin. Congratulations, Ely. BELOW: Ely wrote about his understanding of the Sacrament of Baptism.

Baptism helps us to grow in love and goodness and weakens temptation to sin or be selfish. It gives us a feeling of belonging to God's family.

A baptised person needs to go to Church regularly. Receiving the Eucharist (making your First Communion) and always trying to live as Jesus taught us are things that a baptised person should always do.
